

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are delighted to honor an outstanding Missourian who has witnessed dramatic changes in America during her sojourn on this most precious earth; and

Whereas, Irma Miller, a cherished resident of Macon, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of her Ninetieth Birthday with a special celebration on January 18, 2004, at the home of her daughter, Sharryl A. Dunham of St. Cloud, Florida; and

Whereas, on January 18, 1914, in Clarence, God brought a special gift to Earl and Nina Huntsberry with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Irma, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, while celebrating her birthday, Irma Miller will have the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in her life, such as her marriage to Charles L. Miller (deceased) and the births of their offspring; and

Whereas, God has blessed Irma Miller with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include two children, Charles L. Miller, III, and Sharryl A. Dunham; four grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Irma Miller has further distinguished herself by teaching genealogy classes for five years at Macon High School and serving as Worthy Matron and District Deputy of the Order of the Eastern Star, Mother Advisor of the Rainbow Girls, and District Director of the Daughters of the American Revolution; and

Whereas, at the respectful age of 90, Irma Miller is extremely grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her long and eventful life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Irma Miller at this significant milestone and in wishing her peace and contentment as she continues to enjoy her golden years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Missouri nonagenarian Irma Miller, as a measure of our esteem for her.

Offered by _____ Representative Michael L. Cunningham
District No. 145

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 4896, adopted December 30, 2003.

Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker